

Dave Wolfe

Dave Wolfe made his television debut in 1979 on LWT's Search for a Star & went on to win the final, beginning 1980 with his own television special. Since then he's worked extensively in television, radio, theatre, cabaret & conferences & is now acknowledged as one of the country's finest after dinner speakers.

For the past 20 years Dave has concentrated solely on the corporate market where his unique ability to tailor & personalise his material keeps him in constant demand.

Dave's audiences always like his 'character assassinations' however he is well aware that it's his job to entertain & not to offend and to that end he's always politically sensitive. In fact, he says that the only people who ever complain are the ones that thought they should have got a mention & didn't! He is equally at home with both mixed & all-male audiences.

Dave has worked all over the world entertaining corporate clients in Europe, The Middle East as well as North & Central America. He is acknowledged by his peers as one of the country's funniest comedians & finest after dinner speakers. He specialises in personalisation for corporate events & customer satisfaction is substantiated by the number of re-bookings he receives.

Working regularly for numerous Blue Chip Companies, Dave was pleased to entertain 700 people for Mercedes Commercial at The NEC. This was the fourth time that he had been asked to speak at this particular event & the evening was such a resounding success that he was immediately booked for another four Mercedes events.

He has also appeared at the London Palladium, The Royal Albert Hall & just about every major theatre in the country. Dave's extensive television experiences include; The Royal Variety Shows, Live From Her Majesty's, Comic Relief, Night of 100 Stars, Summertime Special, Only Joking etc. etc..

As a celebrity member of The Variety Club of Great Britain Golfing Society & SPARKS, Dave speaks at many charitable events both at home & abroad and therefore in the summer months company golf days are a speciality.

Dave has recently returned from the fabulous Sirene Golf Hotel in Turkey where he was honoured to be asked to entertain at The Variety Club's Captain's Classic. He's also performed as the guest speaker at the inaugural SPARKS Rugby v Showbiz Classic at La Manga & was delighted to accept Ray Clemence's invitation to speak at his Classic at Olive Nova in Spain. He also found time to fit in another trip to La Manga, this time to entertain at a Pro-Am – he should be getting good at golf by now!

Although unable to take up the invitation to return to La Manga for the 2nd Rugby v Showbiz Classic, Dave has spoken at many Charity Golf events for SPARKS this year including; The Lehman Brothers Classic at the stunning Grove Hotel near Rickmansworth & the Tim Brooke Taylor Classic at Brockett Hall.

Dave has just returned from a holiday & is managing to fit in 3 weeks work before flying out to Mauritius for a speaking engagement & a week's golf with The Variety Club – it's a hard life!
